

Covid-19 Update:

Vietnam has stayed strong in handling the Corona virus. Currently, 2,733 infections have been reported and 35 deaths have been confirmed as a result of the virus (as of 14-04-2021). This makes Vietnam one of the countries that has managed the Corona virus outbreak the best.

Vietnamese media recently reported that Vietnam was considering allowing entry to foreigners who have received COVID-19 vaccine; however, there has been no official guidance from the Vietnamese government about this matter at this time. As of today, the Vietnamese government continues to suspend entry into Vietnam to all foreigners, including people with a Vietnamese visa exemption certificate. This policy has very limited exemptions for diplomatic, official duty, and special cases, including experts, business managers, foreign investors, and high-tech workers of businesses involved in important projects as determined by the Government of Vietnam.

Vietnam Travel Policies:

Understanding that traveling creates a high risk of spreading of Corona virus throughout the country, the Vietnam government has applied strict policies, including:

- Suspension of Vietnam visa and entry for tourists, only foreign experts, investors, highly-skilled workers, their family members; international students, foreign family members of Vietnamese citizens can enter the country conditionally.
- Mandatory health check upon travelers' arrival at any entry point of Vietnam.
- Mandatory centralized quarantine.
