

ITS NEWS

ITS Product in our new 2018 /2019 Brochure

In this issue we would like to introduce you to a new itinerary , visiting Halong Bay and Lan Ha Bay (a part of Halong Bay from Haiphong). Here is an example of the new DAY TOUR program from Hanoi.

- 7.30: Start from Hanoi to Haiphong (a 2 hour drive) on the Standard Express Way Nr. 5.
- 10.00: Arrive in Pha Got Port where you will be warmly welcomed at our private lounge at Pha Got Port. Check in on board.
- 10.30-17:00 Begin cruising, to Lan Ha Bay. Lunch is served on board while your Orchid Day Cruise goes through untouched areas in Lan Ha Bay. Visit Bright Cave – Dark Cave which belongs to Cat Ba National Park. If you are in luck you'll see the White Head Langurs which are strictly preserved by Vietnamese Park Rangers and are also highly protected species in the Vietnamese Red Book. Spend time to enjoy a 45 minute –Kayaking or Vietnamese bamboo boat ride with its' rower for a lovely trip at the hidden areas of the Bay. Then Enjoy a Cooking Demonstration and experience the way of making traditional Vietnamese fresh spring rolls with the crew on board.
- 17.00 Farewell time and the crew says farewell.

*You may also choose to stay overnight on boat, drive back to Hanoi or stay on land at a hotel in Cat Ba Island.

Vietnam Visa

It is not new, but good to know.

The Vietnamese Government has recently approved an extension of the visa waiver for citizens from five Western European countries -- the UK, France, Germany, Italy and Spain -- for the third time. Visitors from 5 Western European countries are exempt from visa from July 1, 2017 to June 30, 2018, if the stay is less than 15 days, applicable to all kinds of passport and travel purposes. The visa exemption policy for citizens of five Western European countries is being piloted from July 1, 2015 to June 30, 2016, then extended for a further year, to June 30, 2017. This was the second time this policy was renewed Please contact us for more details at sm@itsvietnam.com.
