US grants Vietnam permission for direct flights

The US embassy in Hanoi was to deliver a Category 1 rating from the US Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) to Vietnam in February 15. The approval comes ahead of the upcoming meeting between US president Donald Trump and North Korean leader Kim Jong Un in Vietnam, scheduled for February 27 and 28.

Vietnam Airlines CEO Duong Tri Thanh told local media that the carrier would begin with four flights a week to Los Angeles and later daily flights to the West Coast, which is home to a large Vietnamese community.

Budget airline Vietjet and private airline Bamboo Airways have also expressed interest in operating direct flights, although concrete details of their plans were not available at press time. According to figures from the Vietnam Ministry of Culture, Sports and Tourism, the number of Americans visiting Vietnam has grown by 11.9 per cent last year to 687,000.
