

Vietnam Photo Tours - Capture the Vietnamese beauty and cultures through camera lenses!

Vietnam has a diverse range of landscape, people, and culture that you can capture through the camera lenses. No matter if you are an amateur or professional photographers, going there will sure get your friends jealous looking at your travel pictures. Thanks to its easy access to neighboring countries many photo lovers also choose to combine Vietnam with Laos and/or Cambodia in one trip so they can fully explore the old Indochina region.

Breathtaking Landscape

There is such a diverse range of sceneries in Vietnam but the northern area might be the country's most photogenic region. Charmed by the beautiful mountains and ethnic people groups of Ha Giang or Sa Pa, many photographers keep returning to northern Vietnam to capture the different seasons of this region. Take this ITS original 9-day northern trail tour during the fall for the best colors.

Beautiful People

Vietnam stands #9 on the world's friendliest countries list* (Forbes, 2018). Foreign visitors always find themselves welcomed by the brightest smiles wherever they go.

When asked about their favorite part of Vietnam, many inbound tourists mention people. Imagine going on this 17-day biking and sightseeing tour and creating a photo diary along the way for your travel album.

Easy Access to Laos and Cambodia

What's better than a photo tour throughout the entire old Indochina region?! Although not as popular as Thailand or Indonesia, Laos and Cambodia are great choices to visit with Vietnam. Travelers can reach Luang Prabang (Laos) and Siem Reap (Cambodia) in less than 2 hours by air. There are also options to travel by land or river cruise from Vietnam's Mekong delta. Don't want to miss out? You can totally visit all three countries with three weeks!
