New Direct Route: Hanoi - Phnom Penh by Vietnam Airlines

Vietnam Airlines now offers direct flights between Hanoi and Phnom Penh four times a week (Monday, Wednesday, Friday, Sunday) on Airbus A321 aircraft. As the only Vietnamese airline operating this route, it strengthens connections between the two capitals and expands Vietnam-Cambodia travel options.

This new route brings Vietnam Airlines' Cambodia network to five routes, including Hanoi/Ho Chi Minh City – Phnom Penh, Hanoi/Ho Chi Minh City – Siem Reap, and the Indochina route linking Hanoi/Ho Chi Minh City – Vientiane – Phnom Penh.

Discover the Newly Restored Thai Hoa Palace in Hue

Hue, the former imperial capital of Vietnam, is a city steeped in history and culture. Known for its stunning architecture, tranquil Perfume River, and UNESCO-recognized Imperial City, Hue offers a glimpse into the grandeur of Vietnam's past.

The iconic Thai Hoa Palace in Hue has been beautifully restored to its former glory. As the ceremonial heart of the Imperial City, this palace was once where Nguyen emperors conducted grand events and received foreign dignitaries. The recent restoration has revived its intricate carvings, vivid lacquerwork, and golden hues, showcasing the peak of Vietnamese royal craftsmanship. If you're looking to enhance your Vietnam itineraries with unique cultural experiences, Thai Hoa Palace is a must-visit.
